

Where are they now?

The Aldridge Cricket Academy is now into its fifth year with 50 students having experienced the programme. There are many fantastic success stories and here are a few examples of what some Aldridge graduates are up to now...

Dale Hunt (2013-15)
Double Sport and IT
South Africa Tour
Captain and the tour
leading wicket taker
Currently Assistant Centre Manger at the Sir Rod Aldridge Cricket
Centre and BACA
Lettings Manager

Bryce Hounsome (2014-16)
Double Sport and Psychology
First ever ACA centurion in both 50 and 20 over cricket

Bryce is studying at Southampton Solent University.
He was one of only two Freshers to be selected for the 1st team squad—the other, another former ACA player, Jamie Piper.

Tom Haynes (2014-16)
Double Sport and Business
1st XI Captain. Top Score
151* v Sussex Martlets
Currently in Melbourne playing cricket then returns to captain Billingshurst CC in 2017. In September he will begin at Loughborough University studying Sports Technology.

Tara Norris (2014-16) Double Sport and Psychology
ACA Player of the Year 2015 Currently in Melbourne playing cricket and will start Loughborough University in September.
Tara was the first ACA player to be selected on the Sussex Academy. She plays for Sussex Seniors and is part of the England Academy programme.